Program iha 29.3.13

Mericio Akara, Diretor Exekutiv, Luta Hamutuk, Dili. and trained anthropologist.

Maria Madeira, from Gleno, Ermera district, has lived in Portugal and Australia and has now returned to contribute to Timor's recovery, rebuilding and development. She has a B.A. Fine Arts, a Graduate Diploma of Education and a B.A. in Political Science and is currently completing her Doctor of Philosophy - Art at Curtin University, Australia. She has worked in Western Australia as a high school art teacher, visual artist and cultural advisor for several arts and culture institutions and organisations. Maria has held more than fifteen exhibitions of her painting, sculpture, drawings, mixed media collages and installation pieces, across Australia, Portugal, Brazil, Macau and East Timor. Her main concern as an artist, teacher and cultural adviser is to convey East Timor's culture and traditions to other societies – and vice-versa. It is her strong belief that art and culture are the spirit and soul of a nation.

Justino Valentim and research team Maria dos Santos (interviewer), Frederico Caetano (photographer), Ildefonso da Silva (camera operator). Justino Valentim has been involved in many cultural projects over decades. He is the President of the Fataluku Language Council. Most recently he was cultural advisor on Our Culture: Many Different Stories project with Many Hands International. He leads the team of researchers employed by Many Hands to research the endangered cultural heritage of Fataluku people.

Sra. Isabel Ximenes, Sekretariu Estadu, Arte no Kultura. Sra. Isabel became Secretary of State for Art and Culture in 2012.
