Many Hands International

culture based community development

Many Hands International on ABC TV this Sunday 11 am

Dear friends of Many Hands International

We are excited to tell you that this weekend you will be able to see a lovely story about one of our recent projects on "Asia Pacific Focus", ABC 1, Sunday 7 October at 11am.

This show, Preserving Timor's Ancient Tales, presents the story of Our Culture: Many Different Stories, a community theatre production we hosted in Lospalos, Timor-Leste.

This performance was the first ever of its kind for the town. It was led by accomplished Australian theatre director Catherine Simmonds as the final event in her recent Asialink residency in Timor-Leste. The cast of 48 Lospalos locals included lianain (cultural elders), vaihoho (traditional a cappella) singers, theatre group members and local weavers.

Listen to the fascinating story of its development and production. The program features interviews with Director Catherine, her 11 year old son Luca who acted as project camera man, Project Co-ordinator Kim Dunphy and Lospalos local Celes Soares, who combined his roles as director's assistant and interpreter with that of lead dancer and actor.

Or you can watch it right now on: www.abc.net.au/news/2012-10-04/preserving-timors-ancient-tales/4296638.

Best wishes

Kim Dunphy and Holly Schauble, Directors
