

You are invited to an inspiring and fun seminar!
Sharing the music of Timor-Leste & Australia

Talented young musician, flautist Lina Andonovska and community development workers Kate Owen (Ballarat Friends of Ainaro) and Kim Dunphy (Director of Many Hands International) will share their experiences of leading music and dance activities in Ainaro communities. The team, including Timorese musician Marqy da Costa visited Ainaro, Timor-Leste in January this year and over a two week period, presented music performances, led music and dance workshops and learned much from communities and school groups in Ainaro about their culture.

The presentation will include videos and photos of the activities in Ainaro and interactive music performance.

Also enjoy a special performance treat by international musician Lina.

6 - 7.30 pm on Wednesday 13 November

Ballarat Town Hall, via Sturt St front entrance

Gold Coin Donation

Everyone is welcome to join us for an informal 'pay as you go' dinner at Mr Rice in Sturt St afterwards.

