

	Session 2: Sharing Best Practices from the Kakadu National Park, Australia	Moderator: Mr Manuel Smith, National Director of Cultural Heritage, Secretariate of State for Arts and Culture, Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture
13.15 – 14.00	Rock Art Conservation and Management in Kakadu National Park, Australia  Best practices: engaging the local people and communities in Rock Art conservation	Ms. Gabrielle O'Loughlin (Senior Project Officer – Cultural Heritage, Cultural Heritage and Biodiversity Management Unit, Kakadu National Park)  Mr Jeffrey Lee (Traditional Owner within Kakadu National Park)
14.00 – 14.30	Discussion & Q&A
14.30 -14.45	Coffee/tea break
	Session 3: Sharing Best Practices from Wadi Sura, Egypt	Moderator: Mr Abilio da Silva, National Director of Museums, Secretariate of State for Arts and Culture, Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture
14.45 – 15.30	Documentation approaches, investigations and conservation issues for rock art sites in Wadi Sura, Egypt	Mr Hans Leisen (senior expert on Stone Conservation)
15.30 – 15.45	Discussion & Q&A
	Session 4: Critical Issues	Moderator: Mr Manuel Smith, National Director of Cultural Heritage, Secretariate of State for Arts and Culture, Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture
15.45 – 16.30	Introduction (before the site visit): first observation on critical issues in the conservation of rock art sites in the Nino Konis Santana National Park  - documentation approaches - investigations and preservation issues for rock art  - community engagement - visitor management	Mrs Esther Von-Plehwe Leisen (expert on Stone Conservation)  Mr Jeffrey Lee (Traditional Owner within Kakadu National Park)

Day 2 (23 January 2016)